IDEAL LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Small class sizes and low teacher/student ratios

Family involvement strongly encouraged

Student interaction with one another encouraged to promote a strong sense of community

Academic learning support available through Allegheny Intermediate Unit

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

Religious education and Sacramental preparation

Instrumental Band Program and Private Lessons

Boys and girls basketball

Active Girl Scout and Brownie Troops

Affiliation with local Boy Scout Troop

AFFORDABLE QUALITY EDUCATION

Numerous financial aid opportunities for those who qualify

Bishop's Education Fund

SOS Education Program

North American Martyrs Angel Fund

Multiple child tuition discounts to all families

EITC Education Improvement Tax Credit

PRESCHOOL PROGRAM

Half-day, three-year-old program offered two days per week

Full-day and half-day four and five-year-old programs offered three days and five days per week

SUPERIOR ACADEMICS

Standardized test scores that significantly exceed state and national averages

Dedicated and fully-qualified faculty who have earned state and diocesan certifications

Academic program that meets state and diocesan curriculum standards

Full-Day Kindergarten

Spanish foreign language program beginning in preschool

Computer, art, music, physical education, library classes in preschool through sixth grade

BEYOND THE TEXTBOOKS

Expectation and reinforcement of high moral and educational standards

Opportunities for students to perform community service projects and engage in public speaking

Focus on respect for yourself, others and authority